Dear Online Marketer:

If you have already purchased Video Profit Machine, you already know that video has taken over as the Number One form of online marketing.

A whopping 90% of all Internet traffic will be streaming video by the end of this year, according to Cisco. That means if you are still wasting your time promoting your products using text, images or even audio on your web pages ...

You're behind the times, baby!

Today, video is KING!

The problem, however, is that making original videos takes a lot of time, money and energy. And outsourcing video production can cost a fortune.

And if you try to post the exact same video using the exact same keywords ... YouTube, Google and the other big search engines usually will actually penalize you!

But now there's a way you can create dozens ... even hundreds ... of unique versions of the same video all optimized to unique keywords linked to the hottest keywords instantly ... and affordably!
